TSN FEATURE STORY

Money to Spare

CNL associates and leadership pooled their pin money to help Junior Achievement strike a blow for free enterprise. And everyone had a ball.

An all-star cast of 37, and a few supporting cast members, raised $5,350 to help Junior Achievement achieve its mission of inspiring and preparing young people to succeed in a global economy, by providing a bridge between what they learn in school and what they will need to know for the future.

CNL's event champion Keri Zagarella said that this year's average of $145 raised per person exceeds last year's $137 average.

Bob and Jeanette Bourne came to rally the troops. And Tim Seneff brought sons Wesley and Brock, and the newest addition to the family, Maria Catherine. Jeff Shafer, Andy Hyltin and teams from Group Services, CNL Securities, CNL Lifestyle Properties and CNL Private Equity, tore up the lanes. And Steve Wortman, senior vice president, treasury, for CNL Group Services, showed everyone else how the game should be played.

All in all, another great showing for CNL.
