(DALLAS) Oct. 3, 2011 — Real estate veteran Campbell Henry has joined CNL Commercial Real Estate, Inc. as vice president of brokerage services in the company's Dallas office. Henry will help build the company's presence in the Texas market by assisting clients in the property acquisition and leasing of office and medical space.

"Campbell is a highly respected professional with a wide range of experience that perfectly complements our existing team," said Jimmy Grisham, managing director at CNL Commercial Real Estate. "His deep knowledge of tenant needs and requirements will be valuable to our team as we grow our presence in Texas and the Southwest."

Prior to joining CNL Commercial Real Estate, Henry served as a senior associate in Jones Lang LaSalle's Dallas Tenant Representation Group. While there, he completed leasing transactions of more than 1 million square feet and valued in excess of $75 million. He also previously worked with Stream Realty Partners, where he leased a portfolio of buildings totaling more than 2 million square feet. In addition, he was named one of Dallas's "Top 35 Under 35" real estate brokers by Black's Guide for four consecutive years.

"CNL has a great entrepreneurial spirit, a deep long-term culture and attracts high quality people, which is evidenced by its recent growth in Dallas," Henry said. "Joining this team gives me the opportunity to work closely with leaders in the industry while helping to complete the service platform in this market."

Henry will join CNL's national brokerage platform that currently represents clients in more than 25 states. Over the past 18 months, CNL Commercial Real Estate has executed leases for more than 5 million square feet valued in excess of $350 million.
